CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the inness, enables us to offer our services with confidence | sured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged feb 19-tf by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to ARTHUR HERBERT. Year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thou-sand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospeets of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by produce, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company. DIRECTORS:

A LEGACY FOR MR. SPURGEON. A few weeks since the rector of a fashionable parish was sent for to pray with a lady of the name of W-, who lived in elegant appartments near George street, in Hanover Square. A few days afterwards Mrs. W.'s solicitor called on the rector to inform him that the lady was dead and had made a codicil in her will in favor of Rev. Mr. Spurgeon, to a considerable amount, appointing his canonical friend one of her executors. Upon several parties proceeding to Mr. Spurgeon to acquaint him with the agreeable fact, the latter declared there must be a mistake, as he never had the acquaintance of a lady of the name of W---; but, nevertheless, he promised to enquire further into the matter He did so, and found to his utter astonishment the whole to be true, with $2,000 more in the will than was at first mentioned. Mr Spurgeon, it is said, afterwards went to the house of the testatrix, and actually saw the lady in her coffin; he then recollected her as being a constant annoyance to him, many years ago in the Pare-st. Chapel, where she had a pew directly opposite him. She never spoke to him, but was continually watching him, look wherever he would, till at last he was under the necessity of speaking to congregational friends to persuade her to vacate her pew. From that time to the present he had lost sight of the lady .- Court

A Touch of Satire. - The Rome Sentine! relates that a three-year old girl accompanied her father upon a visit to her grandparent in the country, where a blessing is invoked by the white-headed patriarch before each meal. The custom was one with which our little friend had not been made familiar at home, and of course on the first occasion she was silent with interest and curious watchfulness. But when the family gathered around the board the second time after commencement of her visit, she was prepared for the preliminary religious ceremony, and observing that her father did not seem duly conscious of the approaching solemnity, she called him to order, by saying, with stern gravity, "Be still, papa-grandpapa's going to talk to his plate, pretty soon!"

A woman in Chicago was chided for not going to see her husband, who had been badly injured. Her excuse was that she only heard of his injury through the papers, and "they don't always tell the truth."
